TERMS & CONDITIONS

14. The organisers will exercise all reasonable care with the works submitted, but will not be responsible for the loss of, or damage to, any work whilst in their custody or for insurance on works, either during transport or exhibition.

Please pack and/or box your work to avoid damage. We will re-use your packaging to re-pack/wrap/box but will not provide if not supplied initially. Insurance is highly recommended.
15. The organisers reserve the right not to display any work.
16. Judges' decisions are final.
17. Collection of works from Memorial Hall strictly Tuesday 1st & Wednesday 2nd November 2022 between 16:00 & 18:00. Any submitted work not collected by the nominated dates will be given 30 days notice by the organisers of their intention to sell or otherwise dispose of the work. Thereafter, the organisers shall be under no liability whatsoever to the artist in respect to its disposal.
18. Courier collection of works must occur Tuesday 1st & Wednesday 2nd November 2022 between 16:00 & 18:00 from Memorial Hall, 86-88 Sanger Street, Corowa NSW 2646. Contact: D. Charlton 0408 491 454
19. The winner of the Federation Art Prize 2022 will receive $3,000. The winning work is automatically acquisitive (ie. the work will automatically enter the Federation Council art collection). The artist consents to the display of the work at the Federation Council Art Space Gallery.'
20. A commission of 25% will be retained by the organiser on all works sold.
21. The artist for a sold work, and/or a prize winner, will be required to complete a Federation Council New Creditor Form nominating a bank account. The form will be issued within 30 days of the close of the prize. Proof of ID and a copy of a bank statement with name and bank details is required to be submitted with the New Creditor Form. Payment via EFT will occur within 45 days from receipt of the form.
22. Non-receipt of the required New Creditor Form within 60 days of receiving the form will by default result in non-payment by the organiser. There will be no avenue of recourse to the organiser under such circumstances.
23. Works sold must remain on exhibition until the event closes, except in circumstances where the purchaser lives more than one hour from Corowa.
24. Courier or postal services for works purchased is by arrangement between the Artist and Purchaser. Fed Art Prize will facilitate contact between Artist and Purchaser.
25. The organiser reserves the right to reproduce (including photography) the work in material form, publish and communicate the work to the public for the purposes of marketing, publicity, educational, publication and archival uses of the organisers in relation to the prize and its exhibition in all media; digital and electronic, broadcasting and print. It is the Artist's responsibility, not the organisers, to advise any Purchaser of the work, of these rights granted to the organisers. The artist will be attributed when exhibiting, reproducing or publishing the work or communicating the work to the public, unless it is reasonable in all circumstances not to do so.
26. Artists are encouraged to provide a personal profile/CV to assist with sales.
27. All artists are encouraged to attend the Opening Night party and Awards Ceremony. Tickets will be released for purchase closer to the opening night. (18:00, Friday 14th October 2022).
28. Force Majeure - Where, for any reason beyond the reasonable control of the organisers (eg. Pandemic; flood; fire; orders or regulations; government directions; emergency events), the exhibition is hindered or prevented from being held during the advertising dates, the organisers reserve the right to vary, postpone or cancel the competition by notification to entrants and by public notice on its official social media.
29. To ensure a fair and equal competitive environment, we require that all conditions and requirements of entry be met.

Failure to comply with any of the above Terms & Conditions may result in non-entry or disqualification.
